The Germans fired at me all the ~~day~~ was down. I lay hidden near the Pont d'Evreuil Caen (Calvados) highway until the next morning. Then I went to the nearest house and asked for water. Giving me cider they said vite vite and I pointed to a house further from the road. At this house I was fed and hidden in a gully. That night an English-speaking man was brought to me and said we would cycle to Caen the next day. I spent that night in the barn.

The moon the English-speaking man said that the trip to Caen was impossible as the Germans were too close. That night he took me to his home. ~~That night~~ ^{The next} morning he said he had found a "comrade" probably the pilot. Two men in the Resistance came that afternoon to confirm my name and identity. The next day I was taken to Beauville ~~by~~ ~~by~~ joined by Capt. Powers & Capt.
