Dear Sgt Meyerowitz,

It was very nice to hear from you. I was sorry to hear you have been in the hospital and hope you are all right now.

The rest of the contents of your package is in an envelope addressed to you and will be forwarded as soon as censorship will let us.

Your gun is separate, however, as we can't send a gun through the mail. We don't know how or when it will get to you, but don't worry about it because we fully appreciate your attachment to it. At present, it is in the major's desk - as he is the only one of us with enough rank to have a desk with drawers - and there is a big label tied to it giving your name and home address.

We were all very pleased to see that you had made Tech. Sgt. We often worry about what sort of a deal you boys get when you get home.

Do you run into one another often? There must be a lot of you home now.

Sincerely,

DOROTHY A SMITH

Dear Capt. Smith:

This is in reply to your letter with reference to both money orders which I received in January.

It certainly came as a surprise after all this time but it comes in handy nevertheless.

Since you must have gotten the package which contained the money I am very anxious to receive the balance of the contents which was in the package, mainly the small gun which is a very highly prized possession of mine. If you can send it to me it would be appreciated and if not would you tell me how I could go about claiming it in the near future.

As you no doubt remember it holds very fond memories and I would like to have it when this is all over so that I can look back upon those days when it came in handy.

The states was everything I had expected and hoped for upon my return. Unfortunately I had been in the hospital after I came back to the states and have been in and out of them ever since.

I hope the Buzz-Bombs haven't been bothering you folks too much over there.

I would appreciate if you could answer me in the near future as to what I have asked you and hope that this finds you and the rest of the staff in the best of health.

Right now I am home on furlough and received your letter when I came home. That's why this letter is not being sent from camp, so please continue to send all my mail to my home address and they will forward same on to me.

Dear Sgt Meyerowitz:

In going through some of your papers we found that you have never been sent your six thousand seventy five francs (6075). This has been turned into American money orders number 7525 and number 7526 for the total sum of one hundred and twenty two dollars and fifty six cents ($122.56).

This is the official dollar value of the francs we were holding for you.

Did you have a good trip home and find the U.S.A. all that you had been dreaming of? Write us sometime and let us know what happened when you got back.

Sincerely yours,

After our plane had caught fire in the cockpit and number three engine,
I bailed out at 18,000 feet, following the radio operator, pilot and copilot through the bomb bay. I did not delay my jump and coming down I counted three chutes in the distance before landing in a clump of trees.

LANDS IN TREE
My chute was caught in a tree but I got it untangled after I had cut myself out of the harness. It took but a few seconds to bury the chute under leaves and brush and then thinking I could hear bicycle patrols approaching along a road I ran through the woods toward a small town.

Avoids Woodcutters
Before I got there I decided it ~~would~~ was best to stay ~~way~~ away from towns just then and ~~kept~~ ^{keep} to the woods. I heard woodchoppers ^{cutters} at work but avoided them and hid in some brush for the rest of the day.

~~WALKS~~
In the evening I walked to a road. A truckload of ~~prison~~ laborers passed under German guard while I waited to cross. I was in a large wood and ~~being afraid~~ not wanting to wander around after dark I climbed a tree to look for houses. In the distance I heard ~~dog bark~~ a dog barking and travelled in that direction, hoping to find a farmhouse. It was after dark when I reached it, so I waited on the edge of the wood until dawn. A woman came out for firewood. I approached her, ^{after making} ~~being~~ certain she was alone, and asked for help. She got very excited when ~~she~~ she heard I was an American airman and told me to wait while she ~~phone~~ called her husband.

Compiled by ?
I was taken in by these people and from there my journey was arranged.

Appendix B:

- The RAF bombed BLANC, SE of TOULOUSE, where the French repaired aircraft for the Germans and also a powder works in TOULOUSE. Both of these targets were destroyed. (Observation).
- Evader saw large numbers of troops in TOULOUSE, all either old or young.

Appendix D:

- I used most of the contents of my aids box. I would have ~~preferred~~ preferred band-aids to the adhesive tape. The water bottle (folding type) is very difficult to drink from.

2. I had a ~~RED~~ ^{red} purse. I spent the money to pay my helpers for food and gave the other articles to my helpers.

~~3. I had no extra evasion aids.~~

3. I had not received my photos, though they had been taken at Group.

4. I had been lectured on evasion in American and at my Group. The lectures were valuable. I remembered particularly to stay away from large farmhouses and to approach small ones only after watching them carefully.
